

Year 2023 in Review

For the year 2023, Emails to Heaven received a total of $2276.99 in donations. Thank you to those who donated. I also want to thank the following for allowing me to collect donations at their place of business. Agway in Imperial, Sil's Market in Oakdale, and Sincerely Yogurt in Bridgeville.

Your donations help support my program that pays the adoption fees of homeless shelter animals in Allegheny, Washington, and surrounding counties. Your donations also support the Michael S Bertolino Foundation Grant Program and my Good Deed Grant Program. Below is a list of those nonprofits the grant programs made donations too. Jersey, Jeopardy, Rubyann, Tiger, Pixie, Murphy, Benji and Blot, all send you a big Thank You!!

My nonprofit has been trying to create a National Day for Widows and Widowers. I have been working on it since November 2022 and will keep working on it. I resubmitted my application on December 28th with the National Day Calendar. You can read my journey on creating this National Day on the home page of my website.
