

Emails to Heaven, Inc
PO Box 204
Cecil, PA 15321
<https://www.emailstoheaven.org>

Emails to Heaven Newsletter
Tenth Edition 2024
November 10, 2024

ETH News

Does Anyone Care?-Continued

Does anyone care? If you care, please let me know. I would love to hear from you. I discussed this in my October newsletter. Unfortunately, I did not hear from anyone so I am going to talk about those who do support me. I have about a dozen supporters who have been with me either since day one or have come on board since then. One of those supporters was my friend Judy. She was my biggest fan. Sadly, Judy passed away on September 27, 2024. I will miss her dearly. Judy wrote 3 reviews for my nonprofit on the Great Nonprofits website. I would like to share those reviews with you. Hopefully it will inspire others to support my nonprofit, write a review or message/email me about why you care about what I do. Thank you!

Judy's Reviews

jgrenaldo
General Member of the Public
03/12/2024

Emails to Heaven provides a place to write words to a loved one that passed and may have gone unspoken. You can find much comfort in writing or reading thru the messages written by others that are grieving. That is just one of many things. This organization also works to help Our Veterans, good deeds for widows and widowers, donations to the food bank and local animal shelters. Cheryl has worked tirelessly in doing all she can to help those who need it, either by donations or comfort. Emails to Heaven.org gets 5 stars from me

Share this review:

Flag review

Public 06/06/2023

I want to give a big shout out to Emails to Heaven! A fairly new non profit doing so much good for so many. From the food bank, homeless shelter, help for the Veterans and helping homeless pets find their forever homes. And that's just to mention a few. A great organization, working hard to make life better!

Public 07/02/2022

I admire all the hard work and dedication Cheryl has put into helping so many. Taking her personal tragedy to help Cancer patients, veterans and Pets. The photos and stories on Emails to Heaven web page can be comfort to grieving people. I know I felt that when my Little Guy passed away last year.

Crossing Over
Oh, please don't feel guilty
It was just my time to go.
I see you are still feeling sad,
And the tears just seem to flow.
We all come to earth for our lifetime,
And for some it's not many years
I don't want you to keep crying
You are shedding so many tears.
I haven't really left you
Even though it may seem so.
I have just gone to my heavenly home,
And I'm closer to you than you know.
Just believe that when you say
my name, I'm standing next to you,
I know you long to see me,
But there's nothing I can do.
But I'll still send you messages
And hope you understand,
That when your time comes to
"cross over," I'll be there to take your hand.

—Author Unknown

Inside this issue

Does Anyone Care? - Continued

Judy's Reviews

My Name Was Frankie

Walk Beside Me

A Widows Letter

A Widows Grief Stolen

Baby Animals

The Beauty on Earth—Part 7

Question for Melania

Memorial Service For Passed Pets

Where Do I Belong?

Note from a Beagle

Sponsor Update

Comical Animals

My Name Was Frankie

Adopt don't shop. Too many shelter animals are killed each year because there are not enough homes for all of them. I feel puppy mills need to be closed down and the space at pet stores that used to house puppy mill puppies can be used to help local shelters with finding adopters for their homeless pets. Frankie was just one of million homeless dogs that are euthanized each year. I constantly see posts on Facebook from kill shelters pleading with the public or a rescue group to step up to help save a dog or cat. The post even includes the date when the animal will be put down. Very depressing! Rest in peace Frankie!

"Somedays I just sit and remember"
~www.Facebook.com/Missinglovedone

Hi. My name was Frankie,
I was a good boy,
healthy and very friendly

They killed me on Octobre 23.
The shelter was full and i had to go.
Please people, don't buy from breeders.
Save our lives instead. Please.
It is too late for me,
but there are so many more.

Walk Beside Me

A Widows Letter

A Widows Grief Stolen

3

Widow Warriors-When We Became Me

1h · 🌐

A member needs our input 🌟

I found your page on a distant friends page, and it's brought me comfort this last week and half since my husband died. I'm finding it hard not to be angry when none of our friends and very little of the family has reached out to me in any way. My spouse's brothers and sisters are getting tons of condolences, flowers, cards and I don't even get a 'sorry for your loss' if it wasn't for my children I would be entirely alone through this. I'm really hurt and trying not to be bothered by this, but I can't help it. He fought cancer the last four years, and I was his sole caregiver and worked two jobs to support us. None of the friends or relatives helped out, but now its like they are clambering for the spotlight, and I feel almost like they are stealing my grief. Is this common? Am I in the wrong for feeling angry and resentful towards our friends and community?

Sharon Stafford

Sending hugs sadly it seems that once we become widows we become invisible . Grief is hard enough without being abandoned . Apart from one very loyal lady nobody has bothered with me not even a how are you !!! 2 weeks after my husbands funeral people just stopped contact i dont bother to reach out anymore no point Its been nearly 2 years for me but i can honestly say this group has the kindest most loveliest people who understand your never alone on here and in this group xx

38m Like Reply

17 🙏❤️👍

View 1 reply

Linda Turner Lawrence

I understand. My first husband had a bone marrow transplant that didn't work and as we were sitting in the ICU waiting room, his mother sent out here wedding invites for 3 weeks later! It took me a long time to get over that one. I did tell her and the other siblings exactly how I felt. Maybe you need to say something to the people that aren't supporting you. People sometimes don't know what to say or do so they do nothing. I'm so sorry this is happening to you. My second husband passed a year ago but I have a great support system now.

51m Like Reply

5 🙏❤️👍

View 1 reply

Ginny Halcomb

I lost people after my husband passed. I didn't do his final arrangements they way they liked. I didn't inform that things were going to be done the way they were. They actually expected me right after he passed to worry about theme and their feelings. His mother wants any better.

35m Like Reply

3 🙏❤️👍

👑 Top fan

Linda Apgar

Sorry for your loss. What you're going through seems common. You are grieving deeply and I feel others can't understand your pain and don't know how to react. No one understands until it happens to them.

Baby Animals

Be kind to all animals

The Beauty on Earth—Part 7

Question for Melania

On September 23rd, Fox News announced they would be holding a live interview with Melania Trump and if any of their viewers would like to ask a question, to submit it to Friends@FoxNews.com. So I did.

I didn't get the opportunity to watch the entire interview so I don't know if my question was presented to her or not. If not, I will keep trying.

Question for Melania

cherylibertolino@comcast.net
To 'Friends@FoxNews.com'

Reply Reply All Forward ...

Mon 9/23/2024 10:04 AM

Since 2017 I have been trying to contact President Trump about surviving spouses. I was hoping to start a conversation with him about changing the filing status for a surviving spouse for those of us without children. It is challenging enough after the death of a spouse, losing their income and then pay higher taxes because we must claim ourselves as single if we do not have a dependent child living with us. I feel the only qualification we need to claim ourselves as a surviving spouse is our spouse is now deceased. I would like to see this filing status change to help all the surviving spouses in our country who are struggling not just those with children. My recent letter was sent to Lara Trump hoping to get her attention, but I don't know if she received it. Is this a conversation that you can start for me?

Thank you,

Memorial Service For Our Passed Pets

During our October 29th Pet Loss Support Group Meeting we held a memorial service for our passed pets. All Pet Parents were welcome and could attend either in person or via live on Facebook.

Taylor Pet Loss Support Group

We will be hosting our first ever Pet Loss Memorial Service!
Tuesday, October 29 @
Coleman-Taylor Funeral Service.
Feel free to bring an urn or special memorial item.
More details below.

We will be hosting a special event next month. A pet loss memorial service will be held for all of our beloved pets who have died.

We hope you can join us in person on October 29th at 6pm! Feel free to bring an urn or memorial item to the service.

If you would like to join online, I will be posting a Facebook live that evening. We ask that you send us your pet's name ahead of time so we can add them to the list of names we will read off to be remembered and honored.

We hope to see you there ❤️

Where Do I Belong?

I keep trying to figure out
Where I belong
since you've been gone,
There's no you,
and I can't find,
the me I was,
when I was with you.

- We are
Widow Warriors

Image: Pinterest
unknown

-  Brenda Thomas
I will never be the same person, I was.
33m Like Reply 3
-  Hanneljie Lambrecht
So true! I feel so lost without my husband. Now 4yrs and still trying to find me...
24m Like Reply
-  Meg Jaramillo
I so feel this. Today marks 8 months.
38m Like Reply 2
-  Yvonne Todd
I also feel this today, been so, so down 3 months but it feels like years. xxx
36m Like Reply 2
-  Michalene Walls
This is a perfect description.
17m Like Reply
-  Irene Tresidder
Yes all of that
12m Like Reply
-  Megan Richards
Me too. Feel lost feel like I am outside looking inside.
7m Like Reply

5

-  Sonja Taylor Teague
I went from wife to care-giver to widow. Now I don't have a clue who I am or where I belong
31m Like Reply 4
- View 1 reply
-  Tina Horn
The me I was went with my husband I'm a different me without him x
38m Like Reply 5
-  Kathy Minner Jones
This says it perfectly
- 18m Like Reply
-  Sylvia Sammy Gonzales
I'm feeling this too . 4 months and it feels like just today.
- 15m Like Reply
-  Siziwe Kwindia
it's a lonely journey
25m Like Reply
-  Susan Cook
This is so so true!
19m Like Reply
- View 1 reply
-  Lynda Pothler
I will never be that same person

You can never
judge another's path,
if you have never walked their journey.

Sponsor Update

6

Note from a Beagle

I am your friend,
your partner,
your dog.

You are my life,
my love,
my leader.

I will be yours,
faithful & true,
till the last beat
of my heart.

I am your

Beagle

I am pleased to announce that Lola has finally found her forever home. Lola was a victim of neglect all of her life. She was rescued by a humane officer. Lola is a special needs senior. She has a large fatty tumor on her right hip which was inoperable. I am thankful someone looked past her disability and gave her a home. Lola was my last sponsor of 2024 to get adopted.

"What a beautiful world this would be if people had hearts like dogs" ~Rescuing Jack and Jill

Comical Animals

Something to make you smile.

Sometimes you just need a hug 🤗

Emails to Heaven

6